Real-Time Video Streaming to a Viral Audience — On Demand

When sub-second streaming is crucial but audience size can’t be sacrificed, Wowza’s Real-Time Streaming at Scale feature is the way to go. Live event broadcasters can deliver interactive experiences to viral audiences in the most reliable manner possible.

For those applications that have unpredictable audience sizes, our platform instantly scales to accommodate even the biggest surprises. Plus, you’re able to reach viewers tuning in after the fact by recording, storing, and re-broadcasting the video at a later date.

Achieve sub-500 millisecond latency to a million viewers.

Whether your audience is in New York, New Delhi, or Timbuktu, Wowza’s Real-Time Streaming at Scale feature delivers a smooth viewing experience that users can interact with.
